

SCOTT GIBSON: WHITE NOISE

Following three years of critically-acclaimed, sell-out UK Tours, Edinburgh Comedy Award-winning Scott Gibson returns with the debut of his fourth all-new storytelling hour, "White Noise".

Delivered in his trademark, breathlessly inimitable style, Gibson covers everything from depression to love; the murkier hues of mental health, dugs, the pursuit of happiness in the digital age, and the unparalleled odyssey of defecating in a bath.

This year, 2016's Best Comedy Newcomer promises to help you cut through the White Noise.

Scott ("Irvine Welsh meets Billy Connolly" – Evening Standard) has successfully established himself as one of the best Scottish Comedians of his generation, a title that was cemented when he received the Lastminute.com Edinburgh Comedy Award for Best Newcomer at the 2016 Edinburgh Fringe. He is also known as the Co-host of The HashTag Show, Scotland's smash hit Comedy Podcast and has supported some of the biggest names in comedy on their national tours including Des Clarke, Daniel Sloss and Frankie Boyle, who describes Scott as a "natural, gifted, and unapologetic storyteller". In 2017 and 2018, Scott embarked on sell-out, nationwide tours of his award-winning debut hour, "Life After Death", and his critically-acclaimed follow-up, Anywhere But Here.

"An absolute pick of the Fringe! He's one to watch... he's going to be big"

★★★★★ The Mirror

"Riotously funny, an uplifting and life-affirming set... his storytelling is extra special, stand-out tales that have the crowd in the palm of the big man's hand"

★★★★★ The Herald

"He delivers constant, big and hard laughs... a born raconteur who can hold your attention"

★★★★★ The List
